

XM Radio, which I pay for, has the best Traffic & Weather stations on ANY radio. It is always up to date and it is on when you want to hear it. XM should have every right to continue to broadcast these reports as subscribers love and benefit from it. As a paying subscriber to this service I should not be told what I can and cannot listen to. There are way more important issues that Congress should be concerned with.